

The Fur Store is Like a Gift Receiving Department

A fortunate purchase in furs is not likely to be repeated this season.

French Hare Stoles, difficult to tell from $35 lynx, similar designs, full three yards long, with cord and ornaments; $10 would look reasonable for this fur; the price is $3.50.

Another stole, not so elaborate, is $1.98. Japanese Fox Stoles, 50 inches long, with cord and fox tails, large brushes, should be $11.50, price $5.50. Shagreen Seal Scarfs, in black, for ride each usually $1. Water Mink Scarfs, $1.18 each. Handsome $15 Fox Scarfs, with large brush tails, $9. One of the most remarkable purchases in this stock is a 72 inches long, Marten Stole, in sable or Isabella color, low-cut price last year $10, our present price $6.75. New Blended Brook Mink Zaza Scarfs, fancy trimmings, should be $8.50, are $3.98. Muffs to match, $3. The new Squirrel Throw Scarfs, full widths and 50 inches long; $5. Real Ermine Muffs to match, $4.50. Ermine is stylish, but it is high; we sell the real at $98. The little animals that come close to the real and difficult to tell them from the real make a set of Scarf and Muff, $12.50. Several hundred pieces of Mink, American, German and Siberian Fox, Hudson Bay Sables, Brown Martens, Lynx and other fur pieces not much more than half their value.

The Holiday Linens

are gathered from the makers of Ireland, England and Germany. They are the world's best manufacturers. We buy Linens from any good maker who gives us an advantage in the price. That's why our Linen efforts are always crowned with a sale success; also the satisfaction of those that buy them.

Hand Embroidered Fancy Linen Scarfs, Napkins, Doilies, Tray Cloths, Pillow Shams, etc. The good old hand work of Ireland. These almost for the cost of the embroidery. Doilies, 35c and 45c; Center Pieces, elaborately embroidered, $1.50; Tray Cloths, $1.50 and $1.75; Pillow Shams, $2 to $5 each; Scarfs, $1.50 to $3.

Mexican Drawn Table Sets, $19.75 for cloth and napkins. Hemstitched Table Sets, $9.75 to $25. Handmade Tray Cloths and Center pieces, choicest pattern of Erin's Isle, 50c to $1.25. German Damask Dinner Cloths, open drawn work border, $2.10, instead of $2.50 are $1.50. A lot of Pure Linen Table Cloths, white, with colored borders, $2.10 and $2.50; each price $1.25 and $1.50. Monday's price 79c. Open Hemstitched Tray Cloths, full bleached, 25c.

A Gift for the Eyes

Is there any present that will furnish more pleasure than one that helps to the full use of the eyes? Perhaps you know some one who needs Glasses yet are in ignorance of it themselves. ## The Cohen Art Stock is one of the best corners in the store. You can measure that statement by the variety and quantity of stock that is kept, or the better price of any other store that we know of. Every sort of material for all kinds of work. Every kind of cushion of all the new ideas. Every kind of foreign Linen Work, Renaissance of every size and kind, Irish Point and Applique and hundreds of unnameables.

We do stamping now for two weeks at special prices. No new pattern for any use whatsoever but what is represented. There are books and books from which you can choose.

250 Art Scarfs, Shams and Centerpieces of applique and Irish point, value to 3c, for 15c each. Other special price lots are 25c, 45c and 80c. You can pick from these lots values three times their cost. Real Hand Made Cluny Centerpieces, good $15 value, are $5c. All sizes up to $7.50 that are usually priced $12. Most beautiful Ipen, in Tenorillo designs, with Mexican drawn center; this remarkable bargain calls for 50c instead of 95c. A larger one, was $2, is $1.35. 30 Yellow Pillow Tops, all colors, beautiful, bright designs, 11c each. Large lot of Pine Pillow Tops, most artistic designs, best 50c ones, Monday's special price, 25c. Ready-to-use Pillows from 95c to $1.0. Lambrequins, 10c to $3.75, some handsome silk ones.

Cohen's Great Book Store

Full of Juvenile Works

has no better spot in all America. We have gone to London, England, for a great deal of the goods, some from Berlin and all the best publications in America.

A Juvenile Book for 3c or one for $5. The most gifted authors represented here and nearly every price. Where it has been possible the prices are half or near of the publishers.

A full series of Cloth Bound Books, highly illustrated, some of the standard and classics for children, will be 50c a volume. Crane's Picture Book, the best $1.50 book ever published, 60c. "The Brave Old Duke of York," "Excellent Jane," "Flowers of Paradise" (musical), "A Book on Dogs," "A Book on Cats," "Urchins of the Sea," "Jumbies" and a dozen other highly illustrated juvenile works, published at 75c, our price 25c each. "Chatterbox" and Sunday books, published at $1, are 50c each. "The Outlook Fairy Book," published at $1.50, is 60c. "History of Birds," "History of the Sea" and "History of Animals," over 600 pages, fully illustrated and linen cloth bound, 50c. "Life and Adventures of Santa Claus," 80c and $1. "Heroes Deeds of Great Americans," large 8vo., 447 pages, 40c. "The Marvelous Land of Oz," all about wogglous 80c. Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," 80c. "Largest Mother Goose" published is priced 45c. "History of the Old Testament, History of the New Testament, in one volume," 45c. "Highly Illustrated Bible Stories for Young Folks," 20c.

Henty and Alger Series. Several thousands for 12 1-2c and 15c a volume. "Robinson Crusoe," "Andersen's Fairy Tales" and "Old Santa Claus," large board books, fully illustrated, 40c each. Among the standard juveniles are such books as all the Elsie Books, 50c a volume. Alcott's Little Women Series, 75c. Little People Books, 80c. Little Colonel Series, 65c. The Mildred Books, 75c. There is a Children's Shakespeare, Tennyson, Longfellow and Royal Children of English History, in highly illustrated volumes that are extremely rare; we sell them at 95c a volume.

Sets of Books for Grown Folks

have been bought to such an advantage that it is doubtful if such values can be duplicated.

Thackeray's, 10 volumes, by best American publishers, hand bound with silk and gold cloth; were 10 to $12.50, are $6.88.

Bound as the above are these: Dickens, in 16 volumes, for $9. Josephus, in 3 volumes, for $1.50. George Eliot, in 8 volumes, for $5. Ruskin, in 3 volumes, for $1.50. Cooper, in 5 volumes, for $3.70. Carlyle, in 10 volumes, for $7.50. Cooper, complete, 16 volumes, for $10.50.

Irving, in 6 volumes, $5.60. Dickens, in 16 volumes, in three-quarter leather, $15.50.

There are cheaper sets and each and every one full size, clear type. You may buy 15 volumes of Dickens at $1.08, $2.05 or $3.75. Scott and all the favorite old writers at almost any price you desire.

If there is any publication of poetry that is not represented here it would be strange.

You can start at 8c a volume for works of English or American poets and end at 95c a volume.

There are tens of thousands of books in every direction of literature from Homer down to the last book by Ralph Connor.

You may start in price at 6c and end at the full Morocco bound in almost any title.

Cohen's Grand Opening OF THE HOLIDAY BURR

shows all richness of the beauties within. We have devoted every possible effort to make the exhibit worthy of this great store. We have also followed the time-honored golden rule of the store's belittled price marks.

The holiday opening is always an event to Richmond shoppers, and each year we try to excel. The exposition this year represents a greater outlay of money and expenditure of time than any in the store's past.

You Should Pass Through All the Aisles of the Different Floors.

Fine Pottery, China, Cut Glass and Hand Wrought Metal Goods

Here you will find an aggregation of Bric-a-Brac and everything necessary for utility or the house beautiful. Asia and Europe, as well as America, have contributed of their many wonders. ## Books!

The Decorations of the Mind as a Holiday Gift.

The subject matter of the book is the lasting emblem of the gift, even, perhaps, to the ending of the receiver's memory.

The Book Store for All

is the appeal that Cohen's Store has prepared for all classes of readers. AND "THE GREAT PREPARATION" has the originality of selling books for so little that good reading becomes a matter more of will than of what you pay.

The book store fills a space of thirty-five hundred feet of floor space, with every shelf and counter piled up to as many as they will hold, and the duplicates of all these are held as a reserve for the busy holiday days in the warehouse.
